Just Now

When inferior, low grade alum baking powders are being urged upon the public, it is well to remember that alum is unwholesome; its use in bread making is prohibited in some countries and baking powders made with alum are required in some States to be so branded.

The only acid ingredient used in Cleveland's baking powder is pure cream of tartar; no alum, no ammonia, no adulteration of any kind. It costs a few cents a pound more than alum powders, but it is worth more.

Should be Removed. Through the carelessness of somebody several large steps were left square on the sidewalk in front of the W. N. Bixby block on Summer street. The stones have remained there for some time and it was necessary for people passing on this side of the street to clamber over them. Sunday it was noticed that there were spots of blood on them, evidently they were there as the result of an accident to some one. They should be removed at once before some pedestrian is injured or the owner is prosecuted.

The animal stopped on the hill opposite the Methodist church.

Paro, alternate. The next meeting will be held a week from Saturday evening. The officers will be installed January 8.

Should be Removed. Through the carelessness of somebody several large steps were left square on the sidewalk in front of the W. N. Bixby block on Summer street. The stones have remained there for some time and it was necessary for people passing on this side of the street to clamber over them. Sunday it was noticed that there were spots of blood on them, evidently they were there as the result of an accident to some one. They should be removed at once before some pedestrian is injured or the owner is prosecuted.

COUNCIL MEETING

Last Regular One of the Year Has Little Snap to It.

MR. HAMER AND THE MINORITY

The Union Work Investigation Reports. The Minority Gives His Opinion on the Matter, Attacking All Concerned. Board of Health Asks for Important Changes.

The regular meeting of the city council was held Monday evening and the men in the arena were favored with a good sized audience. It was expected that there would be war and there was only slight dissent. Mr. Hamer was on hand with his minority report on the Union matter and made all the capital he could out of his narrow fault finding. The salary grab bill did not materialize, probably because Mr. Hamer was afraid it would be a boomerang in the ante-election hours and on the whole the meeting was one of the most unsatisfactory of the year. This was because the minority had pushed matters to their highest pressure to get a little political energy out of them when there was not the least bit in them. The meeting was that when fairly viewed Monday evening and it looks today as if it had been rolled by the city's steam mace-making machine. It was dry stalks with inter-sap and the g. lleries knew it for they did not applaud who goings on. The first item of business was the following communication from the mayor:

Mayor's Communication. To the Honorable, the President and Members of the City Council of North Adams.

Gentlemen—I have the honor to transmit to your honorable body three communications from the board of health for your consideration. The first is an ordinance concerning the sale of milk. This is an important subject and is one that is receiving much attention in other cities. The proposed ordinance has been carefully drawn and I recommend it to your best attention. "The second is in relation to the establishment of a hospital for contagious diseases by the city. The board of health presents the subject in a clear and vigorous way and as it is governed by the statute law of the Commonwealth, I recommend that your honorable body take such action as may be necessary to comply with the law and at the same time aid the board of estimate in making out the list of appropriations for the ensuing year.

"The third is in relation to a petition to be presented to the Fitchburg and the Boston & Albany railway corporations for the grading and paving of certain lands owned by them in this city. While the board of health has large power in the premises it seems to me eminently advisable to give due heed to the large interests involved. I therefore recommend that the mayor be authorized to petition the said railway corporations in accordance with the recommendations of the board of health, the commissioner of public works and the city engineer."

Yours respectfully, A. C. HOUGHTON.

Board of Health Matters.

An ordinance was introduced with reference to the inspection of cattle and the vessels and barns of milk peddlers. It provides for the inspection of the cattle in June and December of each year and against the exchange of milk cans in the streets by the opening of milk cans. A penalty of $20 is imposed on those who violate the provisions of the ordinance and the matter has been given proper notice. The matter with reference to the building of a hospital for the care of patients suffering with contagious diseases was set forth in a request from the board of health, which asks that the city take steps under statute law to have a hospital built at the public hospital grounds and cared for by the nurses of the public hospital. This plan is agreeable to the public hospital. The milk ordinance and the hospital matter were referred to the committee on ordinances and the matter on petitioning the Boston & Albany railroad and the Fitchburg railroad to pave their yards in this city was allowed, the mayor being instructed to petition according to the recommendation of the board of health and the commissioner of public works and the city engineer.

The City Will be Sued. George Sanborn petitioned the city to award damages to him for injuries received to his property by the raising of the grade of North street. The petitioner is represented by Crosby & Noxon of Pittsfield.

Tangle Over Taxes.

Mr. Tilton for the committee on claims asked that the sum of $5.10 be refunded by the treasurer to Mr. Anna C. Canna. It appears that Mr. Canna has been paying tax on a piece of property for 10 years that does not belong to her. The committee could not say to whom the property belonged for the assessor could not locate it. There was something of a mix-up over this bit of business. A motion was made instructing the treasurer to pay according to the recommendation of the committee on claims since the council got tangled over it. The motion on motion of Mr. Hamer was reconsidered and then Mr. Tilton moved that the petition be granted and the money paid from the contingent fund. Mr. Mort asked for "yea" and "nay" vote and was informed that the amount did not reach $200 and so did not require such a vote. The clerk said that the treasurer would not pay money on such a vote and Mr. Wilkinson was called to explain a little. He wondered if it would not be best to appoint a committee to find the land, but he would not dare move for such a committee for fear he would be put on it. If the matter had not gone so far he would move to refer the matter back to the committee. Certainly Mrs. Canna has paid the tax for 10 years and should be reimbursed. The mistake was made before Mr. Miller assumed office and it was carried on. Mr. Perry asked "where we are at" and then there was a final reckoning. Then Mr.

Perry moved to amend that the matter be referred to the committee on finance. Mr. Cutting understood that there was no motion before the house and moved that the matter be referred to the committee on claims. Mr. Wilkinson then moved all be referred back to the committee. Everybody voted "yes" but Mr. Tilton who didn't want the job.

Parliamentary Law.

Mr. Hamer then spoke about parliamentary law on a minority report. He thought that a minority report should follow a majority report. The president agreed with him. Mr. Wilkinson then rose and gave a statement that according to Cushing a minority by one man was only one man's opinion and not a report of committee. This was in one copy of Cushing and in another copy he found no reference to a minority report. The president decided that until every member of the committee had reported the committee had not reported.

Not in the Way.

Mr. Hamer never heard of anything like what the councilman last speaking said. He always understood that a majority and minority report had equal position before a deliberative body. Mr. Wilkinson said he did not wish to stand in the way of a minority report. Mr. Armstrong made the further point that the minority report is only received by courtesy of the body receiving it, that it has no legal standing.

Committee on Streets.

Mr. Mort then reported from the committee on streets favorably on the petition of the New England Telephone and Telegraph company for privilege to place poles on several streets. The report was accepted. Mr. Mort also reported with reference to the new state road to the Adams line. He reported that the city incurs no expense in the building of the road, that the road is built by the state and maintained by it forever. The report of the committee was accepted.

The Union Work.

Mr. Tilton then said that a report in the Union work would be read by him which is only signed by two members of the committee, that one of the members did not give his views to the other two members and that the two signing had no knowledge of another report. Given with his report was a report from the auditor and an opinion by the city solicitor.

The Tilton Report.

We find that the cost of the work done in the Union is, surface sewer, $4,688.12; macadam road, $3,588.53; sidewalk, $681.32; total, $7,966.42. The work was done by order of the commissioner of public works and we submit the opinion of the city solicitor upon which the commissioner bases his authority for doing the work by the day instead of by contract. The point is a legal question and we are not lawyers. There is no understanding between Houghton and Gallup about the macadam, but there is an agreement upon the part of the Arnold print works to pay to the city of North Adams an equal share of the cost of the macadam road to the extent of the appropriation, that is to say the Arnold print works agrees to pay $2500 and the city $2500. The report was signed by Frank L. Tilton and John A. Rice.

That Letter of Agreement.

The letter from Mr. Houghton in New York to Commissioner Hunter calling his attention to some public matters, asking him to get more men and more foremen to drive things on and making the offer of $2,500 from the Arnold print works for macadam, was then read by Mr. Tilton to show the agreement between the print works and the city.

The Solicitors' Opinion.

The city solicitor's opinion in the right of the commissioner to do the work in the Union by the day and not by contract was then read by Mr. Tilton. The solicitors showed the absurdity of attempting to make all city work costing over $500 come under the clause of "other work" as in the city charter. It proved the full authority of the commissioner over public work and showed that a wash-pot, or care for a case of small pox, or the expending of $10,000 for erecting a building, all requiring an expenditure for "mechanical or other work" over $500, could hardly be contracted and that the term "other work" is capable of absurd construction such as Mr. Hamer is giving it. Mr. Tilton moved his report be placed on file and the motion was passed. Mr. Hamer then rose and presented his minority report. Before reporting he asked for the letter of the mayor and the city solicitor's opinion. He then reported.

The Minority Report.

After stating the date, August 3, of the mayor's letter to Commissioner Hunter offering the $2,500 toward the macadam in behalf of the Arnold print works, the minority said "It seems that his honor the mayor and the commissioner of public works knew when they asked for the appropriation of $2,500 where they intended to use it. Now why didn't they in our time council and let them act on it and if the council approved of it, let it out by contract in accordance with the charter and let the railroad company pay its part and the auditors on each side one-fourth and the city the balance of it? When the Arnold print works gives $2,500 to aid this work in the Union it is doing no more for as much as would be required of any auditors in the city where such improvements are being made. His honor, the mayor, and the commissioner of public works did wrong in doing this work without consulting the council.

William H. Lally is the following proposition: "North Adams, Mass., July 17, 1897. Commissioners of public works, city of North Adams, Mass., I will agree to furnish all the labor, materials and tools with the exception of steam power required for construction of highways and sewers, etc., for the city of North Adams for 10 per cent. above actual cost of same, or I will furnish all labor and tools, steam power excepted, 15 per cent. above actual cost. I am personally to give general superintendency on any of the work required. W. H. Lally." And written on the back of his proposal was the following: "We will agree to do above work for 12 1/2 per cent on labor including insurance on men, instead of previous proposition. This is not a contract, the mayor has not signed it, no bonds were given. And this is the kind of agreement the city has with W. H. Lally in the Union when thousands of dollars are being expended for the city by Mr. Lally. It will be seen that Mr. Lally gets 12 1/2 per cent. on every dollar he expends for the city. The city solicitor has given his opinion in this. It is evident to any one who understands the matter that when the administration asks for an opinion he does not look up the matter in the charter and give an opinion in accordance with the law and fact, but he looks up the administration to see what kind of an opinion it needs to support and indicate its acts.

The Gentleman's Opinion.

Mr. Hamer then read the city solicitor's opinion and commented upon it, saying the whole intent of it was to mislead. With reference to the letter about the macadam, sent by Mr. Houghton on behalf of the Arnold print works, Mr. Hamer said the letter had been altered since he first saw it. "With a good, competent foreman to drive them," was changed in the letter, he declared, to "With a good, competent foreman to look after them."

The Gentleman Corrected.

Mr. Tilton said that Mr. Hamer's statement that Lally & Co. got 12 1/2 per cent on his agreement was not true, that 2 1/2 per cent was paid for insurance for the men so that the city should not be liable for damages. I regard to the change in the letter, the change was made when the mayor gave his private letter to the public. Mr. Tilton said he would like to have a good agreement with the Arnold print works as that letter. Further, the auditor reports the total expense, but the minority says "no."

Mr. Hamer said the change in the letter was not made before the letter was given to him. In reply to Mr. Rice who said there was no dissenting voice about the definition of "as Union" the place to be investigated, I did not dissent. On motion of Mr. Whitaker, hurriedly seconded by Mr. Mort, the minority report was placed on file.

Mr. Armstrong moved an order for the printing of the annual report, which was adopted.

Other Minor Business.

Mr. Mort then moved the adoption of an order with reference to the telephone poles and the order was adopted. He also moved an order instructing the mayor to petition the state highway commissioners for the state road to the Adams line as proposed. The order was adopted.

The council was adjourned until Wednesday, the 22d.
